JEFFERY JOHN WEAVER,

Plaintiff,

v.

CASE NO. 2:08-CV-13865
HONORABLE GERALD E. ROSEN

JENNIFER M. GRANHOLM,

Defendant.

ORDER TRANSFERRING CASE TO THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

Before the Court is Plaintiff Jeffery John Weaver's pro se civil rights complaint brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiff is a Michigan prisoner currently confined at the Mid-Michigan Correctional Facility in St. Louis, Michigan. In the complaint, Plaintiff challenges an executive order which he claims created the State Office of Administrative Hearings and Rules and removed subject matter jurisdiction over major misconduct hearings from the Michigan Department of Corrections. He names the Governor as the sole defendant in this action.

The proper venue for civil actions in which jurisdiction is not based on diversity of citizenship is the judicial district where: (1) any defendant resides if all defendants reside in the same state; (2) a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred or a substantial part of the property in question is situated; or (3) any defendant may be found if there is no other district in which plaintiff may bring the action. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b). Public officials "reside" in the county where they serve. See O'Neill v. Battisti, 472 F.2d 789, 791 (6th Cir. 1972).

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a), a district court may transfer a civil action to any other district where it might have been brought for the convenience of the parties and witnesses, in the interest of justice.

Having reviewed the complaint, the Court finds that the United States District Court for the Western District of Michigan is a more appropriate forum for this action. Defendant Governor Jennifer Granholm resides in Ingham County for purposes of the present complaint. Ingham County lies in the Southern Division of the Western District of Michigan. See 28 U.S.C. § 102(b).

Accordingly, the Court ORDERS the Clerk of the Court to transfer this case to the United States District Court for the Western District of Michigan. 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and 1404(a).
